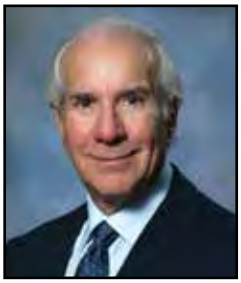
ED SNIDER COMCAST-SPECTACOR CHAIRMAN



Ed Snider is an iconic entrepreneur and true visionary in the sports and entertainment industry. His emergence as a leader in the Philadelphia sports market began in 1966 when he brought a National Hockey League franchise to the city as the founder of the Philadelphia Flyers. He became the driving force behind the construction of the Spectrum and assumed control of the building in 1971. In 1974, Snider created Spectacor as the management company to oversee the Flyers and Spectrum. Over the next 20 years, Spectacor experienced unprecedented growth, earning national acclaim for its impact in the sports and entertainment business. Under Snider's guidance, Spectacor developed and acquired nearly a dozen related companies.

In 1996, Snider merged Spectacor with the Comcast Corporation to form Comcast-Spectacor. The new venture initially consisted of the Philadelphia Flyers, Philadelphia 76ers, Wells Fargo Center, The Spectrum, and the Philadelphia Phantoms. Comcast-Spectacor then joined with the Philadelphia Phillies to form Comcast SportsNet, one of the highest-rated regional sports cable networks in the country.

Most recently, Comcast-Spectacor developed Global Spectrum, an international facilities management company; Ovations Food Services, an international concessions company; New Era Tickets, a full-service ticket provider; and the Flyers Skate Zones, a series of community ice rinks. In addition, Comcast-Spectacor acquired Paicolan, a ticketing technology software company, in 2010. These entities all represent components of Snider's vision: "Take what you do well and grow it."

Snider's success and business acumen have been widely recognized by his peers. He was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1988 and serves on the NHL's Executive Committee. He is a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States and has been elected to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia and Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fames, and the Flyers Hall of Fame. In 2005, he received the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce's William Penn Award, the most prestigious business honor in the region, and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor awarded to Americans of all ethnic backgrounds who have made significant contributions to our society.

One of Snider's proudest accomplishments is the creation of the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation, which provides underserved children from urban neighborhoods in Philadelphia and Camden with the opportunity to learn to play ice hockey. The program features comprehensive educational services that are specifically designed to keep boys and girls on-track for on-time graduation. Hockey is simply the hook that is used to gain and hold the attention of these youngsters so that greater life lessons can be imparted. All services, including equipment and travel are delivered at no cost to city residents. The Foundation recently partnered with the City and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to complete a $14 million construction project in which four public rinks were completely refurbished for year round use. This project included new classrooms, learning labs, and public meeting space, as well as upgrading these rinks to NHL standards. Snider Hockey now funds and administers programming for over 3,000 youngsters at nine inner-city sites.

Snider has received honorary degrees from Hahnemann University and Thomas Jefferson Hospital. He is also a Benefactor of the Sol C. Snider Entrepreneurial Center of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Vice Chairman of the Simon Wiesenthal Center.

Snider's philanthropic generosity has benefitted numerous organizations and agencies throughout the greater Philadelphia region.

In May 1999, readers of the Philadelphia Daily News selected him as Philly's greatest mover and shaker of the millennium.

Snider and his wife, Lin, reside in suburban Philadelphia. His children are daughters Lindy, Tina, and Sarena and sons Craig, Jay, and Samuel, as well as 15 grandchildren.

PAUL HOLMGREN PRESIDENT

Paul Holmgren was named president of the Philadelphia Flyers on May 7, 2014. Holmgren oversees both the business and hockey operations of the Flyers, reporting directly to Flyers Chairman Ed Snider. He begins his 36th season as a member of the Flyers organization.

Holmgren was promoted to president after serving eight seasons as the general manager of the Flyers, during which time the team posted an overall record of 307-234-73 (.559) and made six appearances in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, reaching the Eastern Conference Final in 2008 and the Stanley Cup Final in 2010.

Holmgren was named interim general manager on October 22, 2006 following the resignation of Bob Clarke. The interim tag was lifted on November 11, 2006 when he was named to the position on a permanent basis. Holmgren led the franchise through a turnaround following the 2006-07 season and then guided the Flyers through one of the most successful stretches in franchise history. The team made the playoffs in five consecutive seasons from 2008-2012, winning seven of the 12 playoff series it played during that time. The Flyers enjoyed back-to-back 47-win seasons in 2010-11 and 2011-12, their most in a two-year period since 1985-87, and were the only team in the NHL to reach the second round of the playoffs (or further) in each of the three seasons from 2009-10 to 2011-12. The Flyers posted a 42-win season in 2013-14 and returned to the playoffs after a one-year absence.

In 2007-08, his first full season as general manager, Holmgren guided the Flyers to the best single-season rebound in the NHL that season. The club improved 39 points in the standings, posting a 42-29-11 record for 95 points after collecting just 56 points the year before. The Flyers returned to the Stanley Cup Playoffs and made an impressive run to the Eastern Conference Finals. Since the NHL expanded the playoffs to four rounds in 1980, the 2007-08 Flyers were only the second team to finish with the worst record in the NHL one season and reach the third round of the playoffs the next season (Detroit Red Wings in 1987). The 2007-08 Flyers were also the first team in 13 years to advance to the second round of the playoffs after finishing the previous season with the worst record in the league (San Jose Sharks in 1994).

Holmgren's 2009-10 team made one of the most remarkable runs in Flyers history. The Flyers compiled a regular season record of 41-35-6 for 88 points and qualified for the playoffs on the last day of the season. They then went on to dispatch New Jersey (ECQF, 4 games to 1), Boston (ECSF, 4 games to 3), and Montreal (ECF, 4 games to 1) to reach the Final against the Chicago Blackhawks. The Flyers followed up that Finals run with a 47-win season and a division title in 2010-11, and again posted a 47-win season in 2011-12 after Holmgren dramatically reshaped the team's roster during the offseason.

At the time of his promotion to general manager, Holmgren had served in various capacities in the Flyers front office for the previous 11 years. He re-joined the organization as a scout after he was replaced as the head coach of the Hartford Whalers on November 6, 1995, and was named director of pro scouting on December 30, 1995 when Bill Barber became the head coach of the Hershey Bears. Holmgren was named the director of player personnel on August 6, 1997 and was promoted to assistant general manager on June 14, 1999, a position he held for the next seven seasons.

Holmgren spent parts of four seasons (1992-93 through 1995-96) with the Hartford organization. He was named head coach of the Whalers on June 15, 1992 and added the general manager's duties prior to the 1993-94 season. He stepped down as head coach 17 games into the 1993-94 season to concentrate on his GM duties, but was re-appointed to the position on June 28, 1994 when Jim Rutherford was named the club's general manager. He compiled a record of 59-93-14 as Hartford's head coach.

Upon his retirement following the 1984-85 season, Holmgren was named an assistant coach with the Flyers and helped Mike Keenan guide the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1987. He was named head coach of the Flyers on June 1, 1988, becoming the first former Flyer to be named head coach of the team. Over four seasons as head coach, Holmgren compiled a record of 107-126-31.

Internationally, Holmgren has served as the assistant general manager of the 2006 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team and the general manager for the 2006 U.S. National Team at the IIHF World Championships. He also served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 1998 Winter Olympic Games and at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey Tournament.

Holmgren played 527 games in the National Hockey League over 10 seasons with the Flyers and the Minnesota North Stars. He recorded 144 goals and 179 assists for 323 points while racking up 1,684 career penalty minutes. Holmgren was drafted from the University of Minnesota by the Flyers in the sixth round (108th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft and spent parts of eight seasons with the team. He helped the Flyers to the Stanley Cup Final in 1976 and was part of the club's historic 35-game undefeated streak and Stanley Cup Final appearance during the 1979-80 season. He was traded to the North Stars in exchange for Paul Guay and a third round pick in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft (Darryl Gilmour) on February 23, 1984. His Flyers totals include 138 goals and 171 assists for 309 points and 1,600 penalty minutes in 500 games over parts of nine seasons (1975-76 to 1983-84). His 1,600 penalty minutes with the Flyers are second all-time in club history.

Paul and his wife, Doreen, reside in Somerdale, New Jersey. He has four children: Jason, Kirsten, Wes, and Greta, and three grandchildren, Hannah, Noah and Mackenzie. Holmgren was born on December 2, 1955.

RON HEXTALL GENERAL MANAGER

Ron Hextall was named general manager of the Flyers on May 7, 2014. He enters his 20th season as a member of the Flyers organization.

Hextall's promotion to general manager came after serving the 2013-14 season as the team's assistant general manager and director of hockey operations. He returned to the Flyers in that role on July 15, 2013 after spending seven seasons with the Los Angeles Kings, where he held the title of vice president and assistant general manager.

During his time in Los Angeles, Hextall assisted in all facets of the Kings' hockey operations department while helping the team win the Stanley Cup in 2012. He also served as the general manager of the Manchester Monarchs, Los Angeles's primary affiliate in the American Hockey League. The Monarchs made the playoffs in six of their seven seasons under Hextall's watch, including a division title in 2007 and two trips to the AHL's Eastern Conference Finals.

Prior to joining the Kings, Hextall spent the previous seven seasons in the Flyers front office. He became a pro scout in 1999 upon his retirement as a player, and served in that role for three seasons before being promoted to director of pro player personnel in 2002. In his front office positions with the Flyers, Hextall was instrumental in the club's three Atlantic Division titles and two trips to the Eastern Conference Finals while the club averaged nearly 102 points per season.

Hextall played 11 years of his 13-year career with the Flyers, while also playing a year each with Quebec and the New York Islanders. He led the Flyers to the Stanley Cup Final in his rookie season of 1986-87, winning the Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender and the Conn Smythe Trophy as Most Valuable Player in the 1987 Stanley Cup Final, despite losing to the Edmonton Oilers in seven games. At the conclusion of Game 7, Hextall became just the fourth player in the then 23-year history of the trophy to win the award while being a member of the losing team in the Final. He was also named to both the NHL All-Rookie and NHL First All-Star Teams that season.

Hextall played for the Flyers until 1992 and then returned to Philadelphia from 1994 until his retirement in 1999. His second stint with the Flyers also included a trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1997. He is the franchise's all-time leader among goaltenders in games played (489) and wins (240), while ranking third in shutouts (18). Hextall also owns several other Flyers franchise goaltending records, including an NHL-record 113 penalty minutes in 1988-89 and the all-time records for career points (28), career penalty minutes (476) and most career playoff wins (45) by a Flyers goalie.

A native of Brandon, Manitoba, Hextall was originally selected by the Flyers in the sixth-round (119th overall) of the 1982 NHL Entry Draft. He is the fourth Hextall to play in the NHL following his father, Bryan Jr., his grandfather, Hall of Famer Bryan, Sr., and his uncle Dennis, who played for the Kings during the 1969-70 season. His NHL career included a total of 608 regular season games, a 296-214-69 record including 23 shutouts, a 2.97 goals-against-average and a .895 save-percentage.

During his playing career, Hextall was known for being one of the first goalies to regularly leave the goalmouth and play the puck with his stick and for creative and unique designs on his goalie mask. On December 8, 1987, he became the first goaltender in the history of the NHL to score a goal by shooting the puck into the net as the Flyers defeated the Boston Bruins by a score of 5-2 at the Spectrum. On April 11, 1989, during a Flyers 8-5 playoff victory against the Washington Capitals at the Capital Centre, he collected his second career goal and became the first goalie to score a goal in an NHL playoff game.

Hextall and his wife Diane have four children – daughters Kristin and Rebecca and sons Jeffrey and Brett, who was drafted by the Phoenix Coyotes in the sixth-round of the 2008 NHL Entry Draft.

KATE SMITH SINGS "GOD BLESS AMERICA"

Over 38 years ago, on December 11, 1969, Kate Smith's recording of "God Bless America" was first played at a Flyers game. The Flyers beat the Toronto Maple Leafs, 6-3, at the Spectrum that night. That's where it all began, and "God Bless America" became "our song." Smith was enchanted by this flamboyant hockey team that found her rendition of the American folk classic to be a good luck charm. So much so that she performed the song live at the Spectrum on four occasions:

LIVE PERFORMANCES AT THE SPECTRUM

October 11, 1973 vs. Toronto – Flyers 2, Toronto 0

May 19, 1974 vs. Boston – Flyers 1, Boston 0

Stanley Cup-Winning Game
May 13, 1975 vs. NY Islanders – Flyers 4, Islanders 1

Game 7 of Stanley Cup Semifinals
May 16, 1976 vs. Montreal – Canadiens 5, Flyers 3

Game 4 of Stanley Cup Finals
Though Smith's record with the Flyers is impressive, there were a few losses along the way. The first was a 1-0 defeat at the hands of the Minnesota North Stars on April 4, 1970. Wins and losses aside, to the Flyers organization, Ms. Smith and her song are really something special.

FLYERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS & YOUTH AND AMATEUR HOCKEY

Community Relations

The Philadelphia Flyers are dedicated to improving the Greater Philadelphia Region, which has supported us so well over the years, through our leadership of and assistance with various community events and programs. The Community Relations and Fan Development Departments focus their efforts on programs that assist in the development and positive growth of children, using the sport of hockey as the means to touch the lives of others.

Specific community activities include hospital visits, youth hockey clinics, holiday volunteering, educational assemblies and seminars, and donations of autographed and promotional items to charitable organizations. With support from the entire Flyers organization, we strive to make our community a better place to live.

Community Teammates

The Flyers Community Teammates program was developed to recognize an individual or group for their positive contributions to the local community. The Philadelphia Flyers are accepting nominations for this exciting program. Anyone can nominate a neighbor, friend or relative who makes a difference in the lives of others. The program awards two tickets to a Flyers home game, a personalized Flyers jersey, and recognition on the Arenavision scoreboard during the game.

Nominations must include the person's name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, name of hometown newspaper, and why the individual should be chosen by the Flyers as a Community Teammate. Entries can be submitted via e-mail to flyerscommunity@comcast-spectacor.com, or in writing to:

FLYERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS & YOUTH AND AMATEUR HOCKEY

PHILADELPHIA FLYERS YOUTH & AMATEUR HOCKEY

For over 40 years, the Philadelphia Flyers have been innovators in the promotion and growth of youth hockey in the Delaware Valley. The Flyers' Youth and Amateur Hockey Department has become the area's driving force behind ice hockey. Originally an information and statistics bureau, the department has expanded to include programs aimed at helping the sport to grow at all levels. With the help of corporate sponsorship, the Flyers are able to reach out into the community and help nearly 50,000 youth hockey players every year while exposing the sport to hundreds of thousands of people on an annual basis.

In addition to being a source of information about ice hockey in the Delaware Valley, the Department runs various instructional and recreational programs, each aimed at a different level of interest.

Flyers Cup

Each year at the end of high school hockey season, the top 52 local teams compete in the Flyers Cup tournament to determine which schools will represent the Philadelphia region in the Pennsylvania State Championships.

Delaware Valley Rink Guide

The Youth and Amateur Department publishes an annual guide for hockey programs and rinks in the Delaware Valley. The guide includes information on the 150 rinks in the area, including ice hockey, roller hockey, and street hockey rinks. The guide provides thousands of people in the area with information on hockey clubs, high school leagues, hockey camps, figure skating programs, public skating, and much more. Each rink has its own informational page that even includes a map and directions. The Delaware Valley Rink Guide is a helpful tool for local hockey parents and newcomers to the area.

To request your free guide, call us at (215) 952-5763.

Flyers On-Ice Clinics

The Flyers are committed to teaching local youth hockey players basic hockey skills. The Flyers on-ice clinics help children learn the fundamentals of ice hockey while using fun and interactive drills. The Youth and Amateur Hockey Coaching Staff along with Flyers Ambassador of Hockey Bob "The Hound" Kelly, conduct a two-hour clinic. The Clinic is divided into two one-hour sessions, providing each group with a chance to participate on-ice. Each participant will receive an autographed puck, Flyers gifts, the memory of a fun time on the ice, and a better understanding of the game of hockey.

FLYERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS & YOUTH AND AMATEUR HOCKEY

Flyers Youth Hockey Shootout

The Flyers Youth Hockey Shootout gives young players a chance to show off their skills in a competitive and fun event. The competition is open to children under the age of 14, and takes place during intermission of a Flyers home game. Players compete in a penalty shootout with the winning team advancing in the round robin competition. Interested organizations are entered into a pool, and eight teams from the Squirt, Pee Wee, and Bantam categories are randomly selected to participate throughout the season.

Mites on Ice

Mites on Ice is an opportunity for local hockey players in the Mite and Squirt age bracket to participate in an on-ice scrimmage during intermission of a Flyers home game. The program allows children from various club and in-house leagues throughout the Delaware Valley to play in front of a capacity crowd. For most children, this is their first time feeling the thrill of skating on the same ice as their favorite team. They get to experience the same things their favorite players experience each time they take the ice at the Wells Fargo Center. All participants receive a free Flyers jersey, and unforgettable memories.

To find out more about the Youth Hockey Shootout or Mites on Ice, please call the Youth and Amateur Hockey office at (215) 952-5276 or email robaer@comcast-spectacor.com.

Flyers Pre-and-Post Hockey Games

The Philadelphia Flyers are now offering a chance for local teams to participate in a hockey game before of after select Flyers home games at the Wells Fargo Center. Just by purchasing group tickets to Flyers home games, teams will have an opportunity to play on the same ice as their Flyers' heroes. For further information, please call the Youth and Amateur Hockey office at (215) 952-5276 or email robaer@comcast-spectacor.com.

PA State High School Championship

The Flyers Youth and Amateur Hockey Department acts as the area coordinator for the Pennsylvania State High School Championships. The three game event takes place in the early spring, immediately following the Flyers Cup Scholastic Championships. It rotates annually between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

FLYERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS & YOUTH AND AMATEUR HOCKEY

Hockey Week Across Philadelphia

USA Hockey is leading the hockey community in a nationwide celebration of the sport in "Hockey Weekend Across America." The Philadelphia Flyers support this effort with a week of events across the Greater Philadelphia Region to increase public awareness of hockey and provide opportunities for those who have not played hockey to try it.

Flyers Coaching Symposium

Every year the Flyers conduct a symposium for hockey coaches in the Delaware Valley. The symposium is designed to teach local coaches advanced coaching techniques that can be applied to all age levels, and give them an in-depth hockey analysis. The Flyers have a commitment to youth hockey, and that starts at the coaching level. It is important to encourage good habits and techniques in coaches who are responsible for impressionable children in the community. This symposium is targeted to coaches of all hockey levels. Guest speakers have included current Flyers coaches and training staff, the Flyers Youth and Amateur Hockey Staff, college coaches, and nutritionists.

Flyers Sled Hockey Team

Formed in October of 2010, the Flyers Sled Hockey team features top local sled hockey players, including several players that have competed for the U.S. National team.

ACETABULUM: The "socket" of the hip joint.

AC JOINT (ACROMIOCLAVICULAR JOINT): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ADDUCTION: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

ADHESION: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

AEROBIC: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

ANABOLIC STEROIDS: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

ANAEROBIC: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

ANTERIOR: Front of the body.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI INFLAMMATORY: Any agent, which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTERIOGRAM: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

ARTHROGRAM: X ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder. May be done in combination with plain x-rays, a CAT scan, or with an MRI scan. At the hip, or other joints, a local anesthetic may also be injected to clinically determine whether pain originates from structures within the joint.

ARTHROSCOPE: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

ARTHROSCOPY: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

BONE SCAN: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

BRACHIAL PLEXUS: The confluence of nerve roots, after leaving the cervical vertebrae that eventually form the individual nerves to the arms.

BURNER: An injury to the nerves to the arms, at the neck or brachial plexus, from a traumatic stretching or compression of the nerves. Symptoms typically last minutes to hours.

In 2013-14, The League went to a realigned format for geographic purposes and has decided to stick with geographic names for the four new divisions. Three of the four names are carryovers from the old six-division alignment, but the League added a new name to the mix.

The four division names are Atlantic, Metropolitan, Central and Pacific. The Atlantic and Metropolitan divisions make up the Eastern Conference and each division has eight teams. The Central and Pacific divisions make up the Western Conference and have seven teams in each division.

The Atlantic Division teams are: Boston Bruins, Buffalo Sabres, Detroit Red Wings, Florida Panthers, Montreal Canadiens, Ottawa Senators, Tampa Bay Lightning and Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Red Wings moved from the Western Conference to the Eastern.

The Metropolitan Division includes the three New York-area teams -- New York Rangers, New York Islanders and New Jersey Devils -- along with the Washington Capitals, Pittsburgh Penguins, Philadelphia Flyers, Carolina Hurricanes and Columbus Blue Jackets, who are joining the Red Wings in the move east.

The new Central Division in the Western Conference includes the Chicago Blackhawks, St. Louis Blues, Nashville Predators, Minnesota Wild, Colorado Avalanche, Dallas Stars and Winnipeg Jets, who moved from the Eastern Conference to the Western.

The new Pacific Division includes the Los Angeles Kings, Anaheim Ducks, Phoenix Coyotes, San Jose Sharks, Vancouver Canucks, Calgary Flames and Edmonton Oilers.

THE STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS will still consist of 16 teams, eight from each conference, but it will be division-based and a wild-card system has been added.
The top three teams in each division will make up the first 12 teams in the playoffs. The remaining four spots will be filled by the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference -- regardless of division -- based on regular-season points. It will be possible for one division to send five teams to the postseason while the other sends three.

The seeding of the wild-card teams within each divisional playoff will be determined by regular-season points. The division winner with the most points in the conference will be matched against the wild-card team with the fewest points; the division winner with the second-most points in the conference will play the wild-card team with the second-fewest points.

The teams finishing second and third in each division will play in the first round of the playoffs. The winners of each series will play for berths in the conference championship series.

The winners of the conference championships advance to the Stanley Cup Final.
